GVB youth board member named PATA Face of the Future

FUTURE: Flori-Anne Dela Cruz is the 2019 Pacific Asia Travel Association Face of the Future. Dela Cruz, who is the youth representative to the Guam Visitors Bureau Board of Directors, is the first representative from Guam to have earned the title, according to a joint PATA and GVB press release Monday. PATA officials said the Face of the Future honors young tourism professionals in the Asia-Pacific region. The award was announced at the PATA Annual Summit in Cebu, Philippines, from May 9 to 12. Dela Cruz graduated in December with a bachelor’s degree in business administration with concentrations in marketing and international tourism and hospitality management from the University of Guam. She also received her associate’s degree in travel and tourism management from Guam Community College. She works as a marketing specialist at ASC Trust. Gov. Lou Leon Guerrero appointed her to the GVB board. From left are Chris Battrill, PATA chairman; Dela Cruz; Dato’ Azizan Noordin, PATA life member; Ningsih A. Chandra, vice chairperson for PATA Indonesia Chapter, and Mario Hardy, PATA chief executive officer. Photo courtesy of the Guam Visitors Bureau
